ELLEN WARREN & BRENT HARMAN

ELLEN "ELLE" WARREN AND BRENT HARMAN ARE EVERY BIT THE MODERN COUPLE: he is the president and CEO of Sonny Bryan's Smokehouse, and she is the co-owner of Warren Barrón Bridal. Their courtship lasted a year and a half, and Brent planned a proposal that mimicked one of their favorite dates ... an evening where bad weather and a dancing mood led the couple to Elle's boutique where they danced until 3 a.m. to music from an antique record player. Surrounded with flowers and Champagne, she said "yes." Following the March 13, 2010 ceremony, Dean Fearing, a close family friend of the groom, opened up his restaurant at The Ritz-Carlton for the couple's reception and personally created a menu and one-of-a-kind wedding cake.
